Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland, land of the kilt, bagpipes, Nessie, haggis and many infamous and wonderful characters of history. The city is also full of heritage, beautiful architecture, culture and historic landmarks. Both the Old town and New Town are deemed World Heritage sites by UNESCO. Even though Scotland borders with England, there is a distinct national identity.

The tour will include a visit to the castle and time to explore both the upper and lower towns. Details of other excursions will be arranged once the tour is booked.
